Access to Justice for Animals in Europe: Towards an 'Aarhus Convention' for Animals?

How can animals' interests be meaningfully represented in legal systems across Europe? What would it take to ensure access to justice for animals at the regional level?

The research group AJA (Access to Justice for Animals) is pleased to announce the upcoming conference titled "Access to Justice for Animals in Europe: Towards an 'Aarhus Convention' for Animals?". Speakers include: Niels Fuglsang (Member of the European Parliament), Prof. Thomas Schomerus (Aarhus Convention Compliance Committee), Alice di Concetto (The European Institute for Animal Law & Policy), Prof. Ingrid
